

Annually

College of Health and Human Sciences

MYERS-ALFORD TEACHING AWARD

Nomination and Selection Procedure

This is a memorial fund established by the late Jean Myers and the late Philip S. Myers of Madison, Wisconsin to provide teaching awards in the College of Health and Human Sciences. The amount of the award is $2,500. The Myers-Alford Teaching Award will be given annually. The donors specified that “faculty member receiving this award must demonstrate outstanding ability not only in teaching undergraduate and/or graduate students, but also in providing valuable information to colleagues, peers and other practitioners in the field.”

Eligibility

- 1) Nominee must have a full-time appointment in the College of Health and Human Sciences (9 or 12 months).
- 2) Nominee must have taught a minimum of two undergraduate and/or graduate courses during the academic year for which the award is made, either on campus or by distance education.
- 3) Nominee may hold any academic rank.

Announcement of the Award

- 1) An announcement will be sent to all faculty and students in the College.
- 2) The Chair of the College Awards Committee will ask Department Heads/School Director to encourage students to nominate outstanding faculty in the College of Health and Human Sciences.

Nomination Process

- 1) Nominator(s) may be students, faculty, administrators, or alumni of Kansas State University. (Faculty members may NOT nominate themselves for this award.)
- 2) Nominees must complete the application and submit it electronically by March 1st to fhooten@ksu.edu.

Selection Process

Nominees must follow the award guidelines in order for the committee to consider their application. The entire application packet, not counting the recommendation forms from three students, is limited to 20 pages. The following application materials (with the exception of the student recommendation forms) are to be incorporated into one pdf file and be submitted by the due date:

- 1) Statement of nominee's teaching philosophy (length not to exceed 1 typed page).
- 2) List of contributions made by the nominee to the teaching field within the last two years (length not to exceed 1 typed page).
- 3) Summary table showing the names of all courses taught in the past year, including a short description of the courses, semester taught, presentation format (e.g., campus or distance), number of students enrolled, and if a course was required or elective.
- 4) Packet of student evaluation (TEVAL or IDEA) forms from at least two, but not more than three, courses taught in the past year. The nominee may include student comments as long as the nomination packet length is not exceeded.
- 5) The nominee is to identify three former students (not currently in the applicant's classes) who are able to rate his/her teaching effectiveness and willing to submit an electronic recommendation form by the due date. The nominee or nominator should contact the students to provide instructions for completing the recommendation forms and follow up with them to ask if they have submitted their forms by the due date. However, nominees are not to see or receive the completed forms. The former students are to send their recommendation forms to the designee of the College Awards Committee who will then include the forms with the nomination packet.
- 6) A letter of nomination from a colleague, department head/school director, or former student that describes in detail why the applicant is deserving of this award. If the letter is NOT from the nominee's department head/school director, the nominee must include a statement of support signed by his/her respective department head/school director.
- 7) Do not submit any additional documentation.

Review Committee Composition and Responsibility

- 1) The Review Committee will consist of the voting members of the College Awards Committee. Members nominated for the award will not serve on the Review Committee. Faculty on the committee who provide a recommendation form for a nominee may not vote for applicants of this award.
- 2) Each member of the Review Committee will evaluate materials submitted by/on behalf of each nominee. The members will discuss the nominees and recommend one for the award.
- 3) Following the committee's evaluation of the nominees, the chair of the College Awards Committee will submit a written recommendation to the Dean of the College of Health and Human Sciences. The Dean will notify the award recipient and the candidates who did not receive the award before announcing the award to the faculty, staff, and students.

The Award

- 1) The award will consist of a certificate and $2,500, from the College of Health and Human Sciences Foundation funds.
- 2) The award will be presented at the College of Health and Human Sciences fall forum.
- 3) The name of the recipient and reasons for selection will be sent to appropriate media outlets.