

Internships in Apparel and Textiles

All students in the apparel and textiles program at Kansas State University are required to participate in a 260 hour internship. This is typically completed over the summer of their Junior or Senior years. Many of our students also complete additional internships – either before or after the required one.

Top Row: Maria Perez (Nordstrom, SU16), Kylee Darger (Rebecca Minkoff, SU16), Annabelle Frese (Weissman's, SU17)
 Middle Row: Makenzie Allison (Payless, SU17), Hattie Doolittle (Marie Claire, SU 16), Lydia Lee (Sima Co., SU16)
 Bottom Row: McKenzey Hanna (Buckle, SU17), Kristin Nycklemoe (Target, SU16), Quinn Deters and Holly Abadayan (Bling, SU16), and Jaliyah Brown (Ten Thousand Villages, SU17)

Internship Companies

Our Apparel and Textiles students consistently receive competitive internships within a wide range of companies in the fashion industry, some of which include:

LANDS' END

Buckle

ANTHROPOLOGIE

J.CREW

Lord & Taylor

Zappos.com

NORDSTROM

Lee

Eastbay

KOHL'S

GUCCI

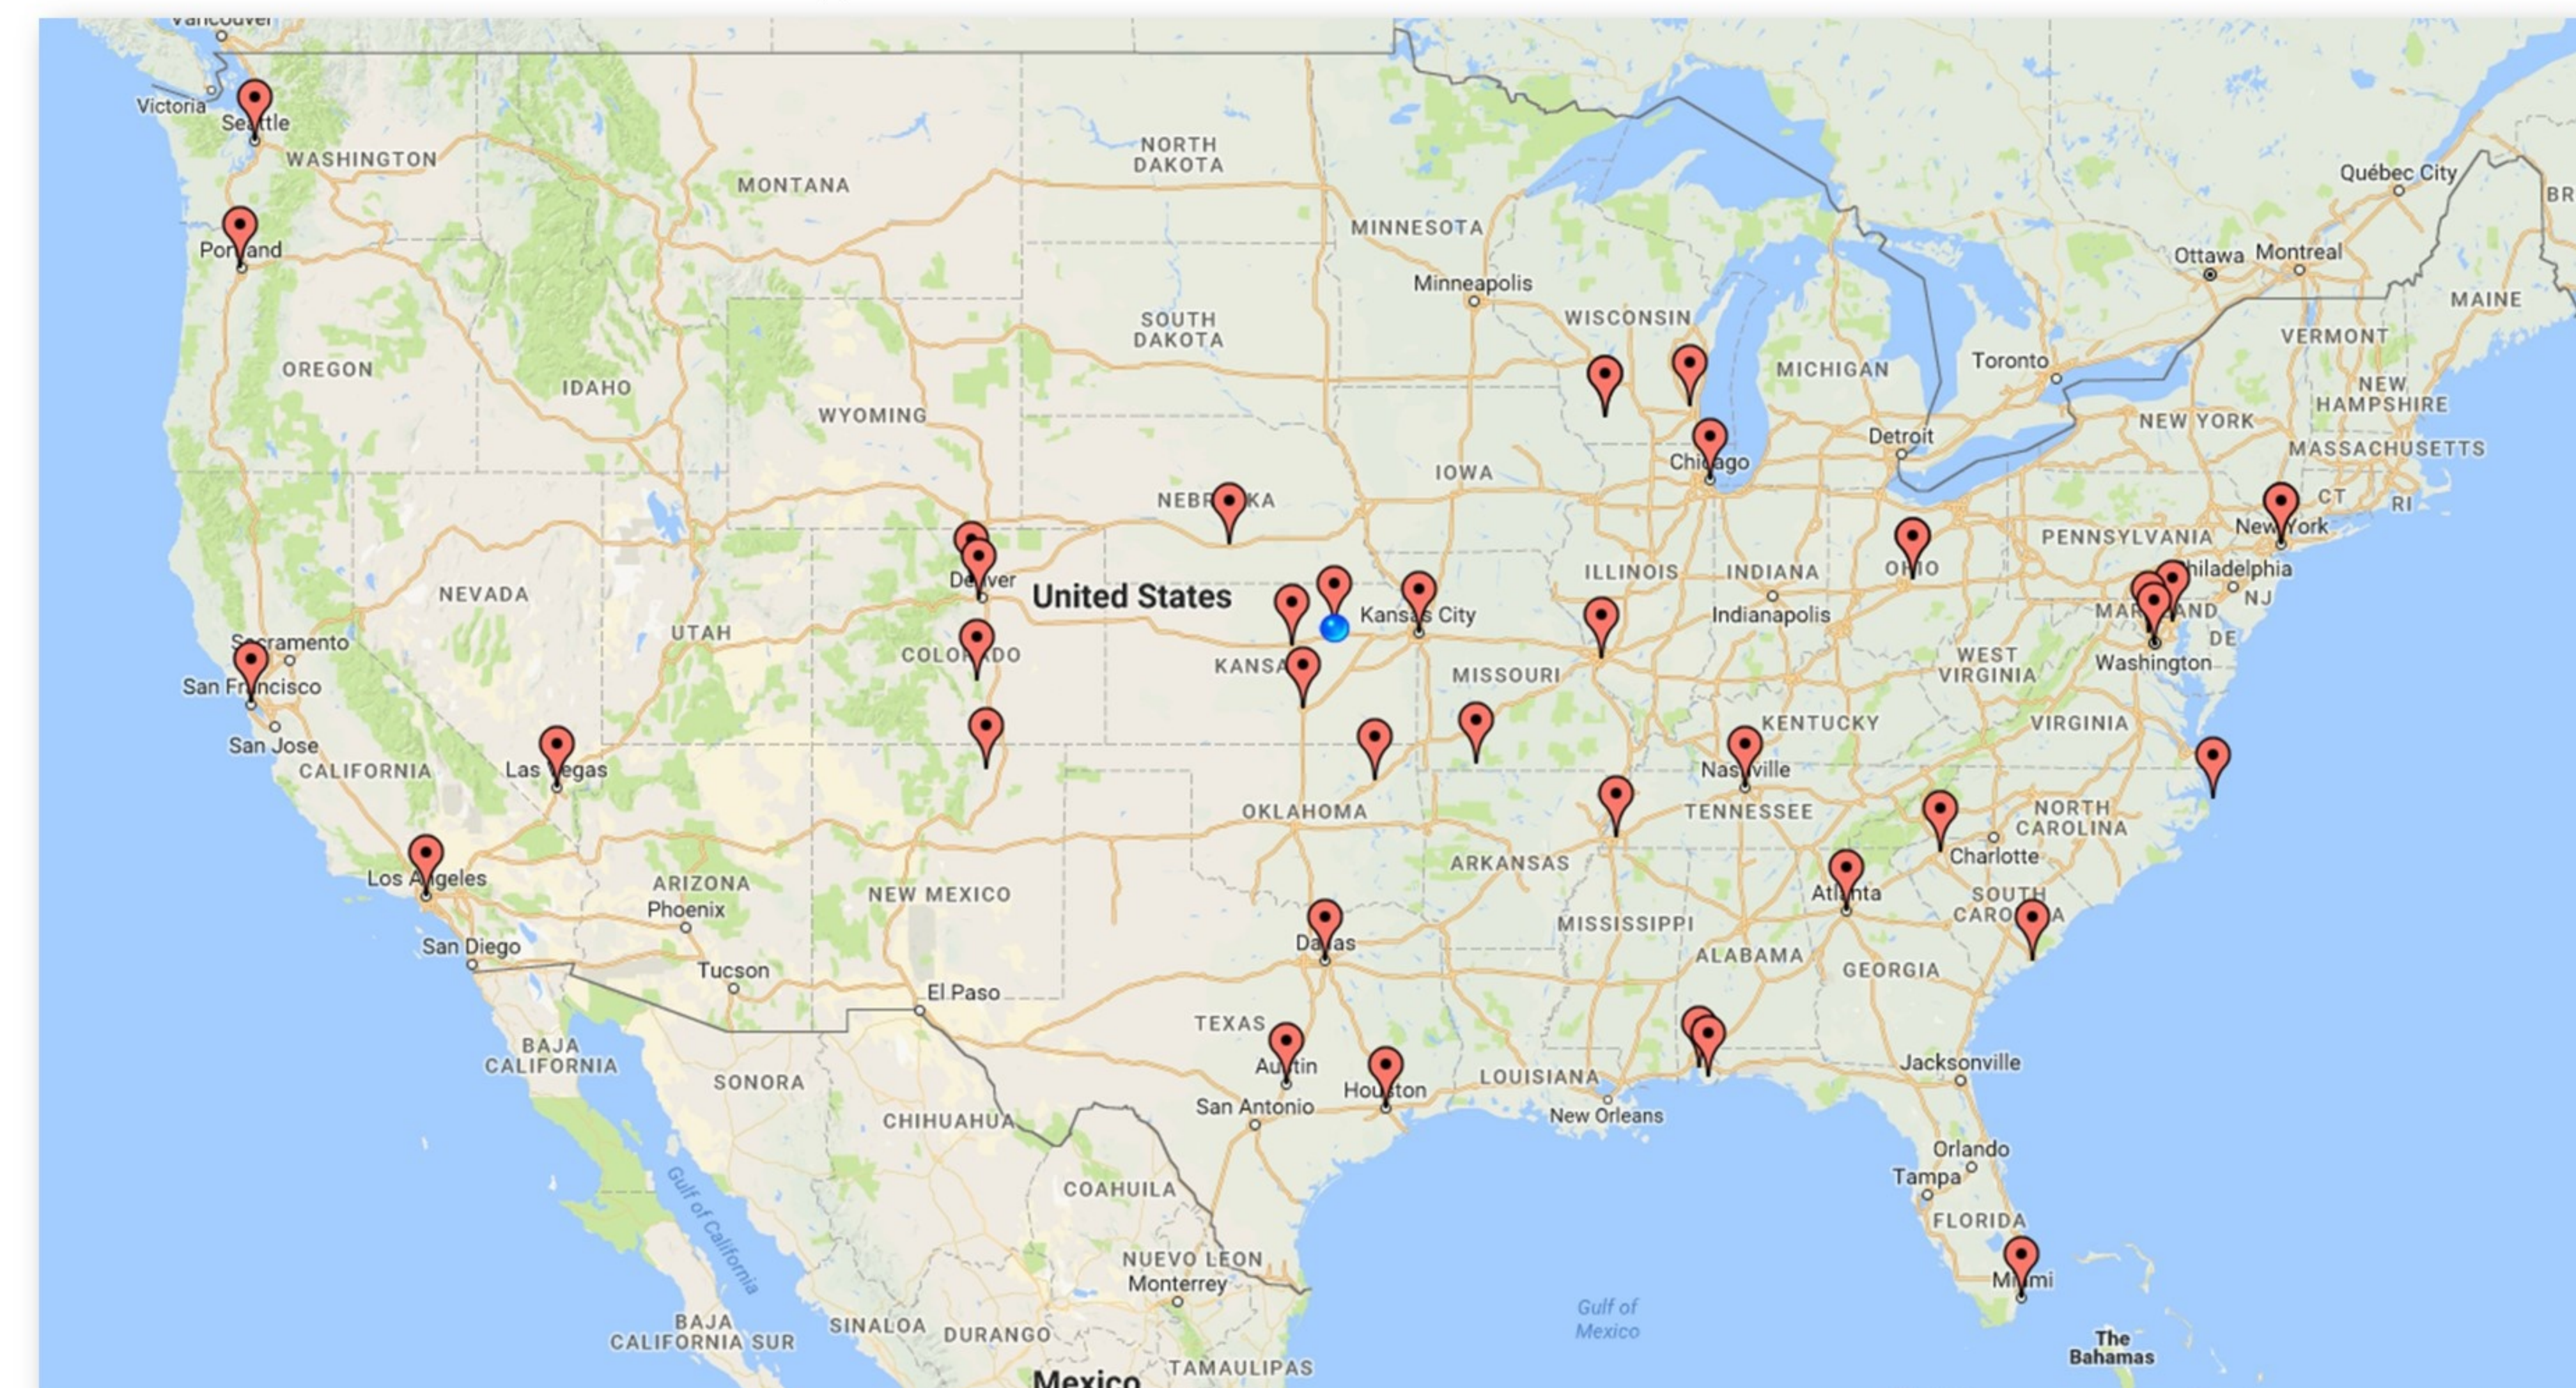

Abercrombie & Fitch

Payless SHOESOURCE®

STANLEY KORSHAK

Internship Locations

Our Apparel and Textiles students complete internships in fashion companies all over the United States.

Students have also gone to the United Kingdom, China, South Korea, India, and Nepal to intern and gain experience with international fashion companies.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Department of Apparel,
Textiles, and Interior Design