Chili beans, mild, canned

Other Possible Activities:

Reading assistant: You may want to ask ahead of time for an older child who reads and speaks Spanish to be allowed to assist you with your lesson. You will create a special opportunity for the older student, model scholastic success and celebrate diverse abilities!

Build a Burrito Boogie: Children stand in a circle. The teacher leads the group in “building” an active burrito by starting with one round tortilla and lifting arms, hands joined together above the head. Repeat for each ingredient as below, counting aloud with each repeated movement:

- Two scoops of rice: Bend knees, act out deep scooping motion two times.
- Three spoonfuls of beans: Hug self, and turn around three times.
- Return to starting position.
- Four strips of meat: With arms at side, squat down-stand up four times.
- Five hot chiles: Open hands wide to show 5 fingers – with arms above head, jump and count to five.
- Six pieces of lettuce: Sway back and forth (arms stretched out in front) six times. Count aloud!
- Seven slices of tomato: Touch down “to my toes” seven times.
- Eight juicy olives: Hop on one foot eight times – count along!
- Nine chunks of cheese: Lift knees high and march in place for nine counts.
- Ten eager fingers: Stretch arms and fingers out wide. Clap hands together 10 times while counting aloud.
