

School of Family Studies & Human Services Ambassador Application 2019-2020

The mission of the FSHS Ambassador program is to promote the School of Family Studies & Human Services to alumni, friends, prospective students (and their families), and to engage current K-State students. Ambassadors represent the School of Family Studies & Human Services during School, College, and University-wide recruitment events on and off campus and provide a voice to current students enrolled in the School. Applicants must have the desire to represent the School of Family Studies & Human Services in a positive light, and are expected to demonstrate leadership by participating in the many opportunities for both college and School events. It is not required that students have extensive knowledge about the School and academic programs. Formal training and attendance at monthly meetings will be required. Ambassadors are required to participate in at least 7 volunteer hours in the fall semester and 15 volunteer hours in the spring semester.

Qualifications:

- Enrolled in a major/minor/undergraduate certificate in the School of Family Studies and Human Services
- Full-time undergraduate student (12 hrs./semester minimum)
- Cumulative K-State GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Able to commit to a full academic year
- Selections based on completion of the application and interview process
