Conflict Resolution

Experiential Learning

What does the program offer?

The K-State Conflict Resolution Experiential Learning Program offers real-life experience with state approved mediators to those wanting to develop their own aptitude in mediation.

Learn more about applying conflict resolution skills, process, and best practices in your career.

“In mediation, lasting agreement happens when the facilitator can guide participants toward resolving the ideals and behaviors that generate their conflict and remain impartial to the outcomes that the participants create for themselves.”

~ Sharon Seidler, Program Coordinator 2018

If you believe that mediation can enhance your career or if a mediation career is right for you, you can gain needed experience to become a Kansas State Approved Mediator through our program.
