

Advice on Supplementing Your Degree:

Learn more about some of the programs we frequently pair up with!

School of Family Studies & Human Services

- Conflict Analysis and Trauma Studies (CATS) Minor—The only academic program in the nation that combines conflict resolution with trauma studies.
 - Are you interested in conflict resolution but don't want a full minor? Check out their CNRES Certificate!
- Secondary Major in Gerontology—For students who are interested in the specialized knowledge and skills that will help them work with older individuals.

Staley School of Leadership Studies

- Minor in Leadership Studies with a Nonprofit Focus—Prepare for leadership in today's rapidly growing nonprofit sector, using ethical decision-making and caring leadership.
- Certificate in Community-Engaged Leadership—For anyone with a passion for creating positive community impact and ideal for undergraduate students, those working with nonprofits, or national service members.

Department of Gender, Women, & Sexuality Studies

- Minor in Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies—Ideal for students who want to pair their major with in-depth study of gender and working with diverse populations.
- Minor in Queer Studies—Advocate for the LGBTQ community and further understand the disadvantages faced by those who have been historically oppressed.

Department of Sociology, Anthropology, & Social Work

- Nonviolence Studies Undergraduate Certificate—Learn nonviolence strategies and tactics, as well as the tools to help resolve problems without violence.

Department of American Ethnic Studies

- Minor in American Ethnic Studies—Help promote social justice ideals and practices of inclusivity while fostering community-based engaged research responsive to the needs and realities of America's diverse ethnicities

College of Business Administration

- Minor in Entrepreneurship—Social entrepreneurship: Start new or develop a company with a social mission as its primary purpose.