Participation Encouraged:

→ Do you enjoy school traditions like Homecoming? Here's your chance to get involved! The K-State Alumni Association is now accepting applications for the Fall 2020 Homecoming Committee! Applications are due by March 16th.

→ Could you survive a month in poverty? Many of our students are interested in helping underserved and struggling populations, and the first step to helping is understanding. Check out the Manhattan Poverty Simulation on March 21st, from 1 to 4 PM for an interactive, immersive experience to help you understand the realities faced by those living in poverty every day. The poverty simulation will be in the Presby Place Gym of First Presbyterian Church. Register online by March 15th to participate.

→ Are you looking for a new minor to pair with your HDFS degree? Keep an eye out this Fall 2020 for 3 awesome new options! Early Childhood Education will soon offer "Children in Group Settings". Gerontology will have a minor option for students who can't fit the full secondary major. And Psychology will have their own minor for the first time. Talk to your advisor today and learn how easily these can be fit in with your professional electives for a degree-enhancement that suits your specific area of interest!

Spring Break:

Traveling for spring break? Check out these helpful tips!

→ Powercat Financial has money-saving tips for a fun break, whether you're staying close to home with a mini-vacation or a day of pampering and self-care, or you're planning something big like a road trip.

→ Looking for something more memorable for your next spring break? Next year, think about doing an Alternative Break! You and your friends can sign up to travel with a team to get hands-on helping out a community in one of several service opportunities ranging from Denver to Dallas!

→ Travelling always comes with a chance of picking up an unwanted bug, but Lafene has some helpful advice on minimizing the risk, especially in light of the coronavirus situation. Don't feel like you can't go anywhere, but be smart and take some simple precautions to stay safe.

International Week:

Spring 2020

International Week

One week.

One place.

Endless cultural experiences.

Volunteering & Internship Opportunities:

- Are you passionate about Cats' Cupboard and fighting food insecurity on campus? The Cupboard is seeking its first-ever student ambassadors to advocate for the basic needs that the pantry provides, help to reduce stigma, and assist in educating the K-State community on how to support food-insecure students. Apply by midnight on March 16th!
- Not sure how you want to get involved or where to look for opportunities? Come to the first-ever Community Engagement Opportunities Fair from 11 AM to 1:30 PM on March 19th in the Union Courtyard! Manhattan's community will have representatives looking for student volunteers and interns for everything from teen mentoring to caring for abandoned animals, and so much more!
 - Connect with organizations ranging from Sunset Zoo to Green Apple Bikes and find the perfect fit for getting involved!

Professional Development Opportunities:

- Mentorship—Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors—don't miss out on a wonderful opportunity for professional development and networking through our college's Professional Mentoring Program! If you have at least 2 semesters left, you could be partnered with a professional in your field willing to help you make connections, learn about the field and vital skills, and get advice on everything from internships to writing your cover letters. Application information is on the attached flyer.
- Undergraduate Research—Undergraduate research experience can be extremely beneficial for gaining hands-on training, applying to grad schools, and learning a lot about a specific subject. A variety of opportunities are available in the College of Health and Human Sciences!

Job Opportunities:

- Rock Springs 4-H Center is looking for summer leaders. All positions are paid, come with on-site housing, meals, wifi, and access to professional development workshops! For more information, contact Jordyn Ross at staffing@rocksprings.net.
- Looking for full-time summer work? A couple in Manhattan is seeking care for their 2 young daughters (11 and 7) for the summer semester. Candidates should have previous childcare experience, transportation to escort the children to age-appropriate activities and appointments, and enjoy interacting with the family dogs (2). The work week will be M-F, 7:45 AM-5:30 PM. Qualified candidates should send a cover letter, photo and resume to Brandie at brandiestoddard@gmail.com.
- Do you like working with seniors? At Home Care provides home care to seniors who need assistance to stay in their homes as long as possible. Applicants need not be a gerontology student or have medical training. At Home Care will train them prior to working with clients. Students can set their own schedules around class/work commitments. They will be assigned to work with specific clients each week, so they can develop a relationship with them. For more information, contact Woody Shoemaker at woody@yourathomecare.com

SUMMER LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

USE YOUR PASSION TO MAKE AN IMPACT

Leadership

Opportunity to take initiative and grow your talents to become strengths

Collaboration

Work in a dynamic team environment and make new lasting friendships

Teach Youth

Change lives and inspire campers to achieve more than they thought possible

JOIN US THIS SUMMER

Camp is more than just a summer job. It is an opportunity to make a difference in the lives of others and grow as a leader.

Specializations

Aquatics

Our aquatics specialists facilitate and focus on safety at canoes and the pool. Current lifeguard certification encouraged, but not required.

Equine

Also known as wranglers, these specialists take care of our horse herd as well as facilitate trail rides and teach an intro to horses program for our youngest campers.

Challenge

Great if you are outgoing and physically active. Challenge specialists facilitate rock climbing, mountain bikes, and our low ropes course. These are our leadership experts at camp.

Crafts & Retail

Perfect for those who are especially creative. This area facilitates craft projects and manages the camp store where campers can purchase souvenirs and snacks.

Conservation

Conservation specialists teach campers about wildlife, the prairie and of course our natural spring.

Shooting Sports

Our shooting sports specialists facilitate and focus on safety for our archery, rifles and trap ranges.

*We also have internship opportunities

The Details

Dates

We have options of 6, 9 & 12 week contracts. First year contracts start May 18th.

Alternative start or end dates can possibly be arranged. Please inquire before signing contract.

Housing

Onsite room and board are provided. Rooms are similar to a college dorm. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are also provided every day.

Time Off

Staff are assigned 1-2 days off per week. Extra time off can be requested. We prefer to know about specific dates before summer starts.

Compensation

In addition to room and board, you will receive a weekly salary paid biweekly. Pay is determined by position, number of years and experience.
