You’re Invited!

Come to our HDFS hygge in JU 245 any time this week!

We’ll be offering a quiet, comfy place to unwind from prepping for finals, with snacks and beverages freely available for our students. The hygge will be in our Student Center every day from 9 AM to 4 PM, and we invite you all to stop by as often and as long as you’d like!

Everyone needs a bit of a hygge now and then!
Leadership Opportunities

→ For students interested in studying abroad and leadership, LEAD 350: Culture & Context in Leadership will be offered as part of the Summer 2020 KSU in Italy program, and will no longer have any prerequisites. Students interested in this program can learn more and apply online.

  → If you’ve already taken LEAD 212 and LEAD 350, then you might be ready to be a class leader yourself! Leadership is currently taking applications for the Fall 2020 LEAD 212 class leaders. Leaders work 5 hours a week, at $8 an hour, and help with everything from attendance to facilitating small group discussions. Applications are due by noon on January 27th.

→ Questions about the Nonprofit Leadership Minor, becoming a Certified Nonprofit Professional, LEAD 350, or becoming a class leader? Contact Leadership at leadreps@k-state.edu, call 785-532-6085, or stop by Leadership 257.

Advising Holds:
The following advising holds are now in effect, so check your KSIS account to see if you’re set to enroll in classes for Spring 20:

→ Alcohol and Sexual Assault Prevention training—This hold will be lifted after you complete your ASAP training in KSIS.

→ TB Questionnaire Hold—Lafene will remove this hold after you have completed the Tuberculosis (TB) Questionnaire on your myLafene portal. Learn more about TB screening through Lafene.

→ Wildcat Internship Survey—If you cannot find your WINS survey link in your campus email, contact Alison Sotkovski at alison@k-state.edu for assistance. Questions about WINS? Find out more from the Career Center.

→ Academic Advising Survey—Please complete in KSIS after meeting with your advisor!

→ To schedule an appointment with your advisor, please go to https://k-state.campus.eab.com.
Volunteering & Internship Opportunities:

→ If you’re looking for research opportunities as an undergrad and have an interest in early childhood, our Early Childhood Education program is looking for research assistants for multiple projects. A wide range of opportunities is available, from analyzing childcare quality to video coding of children’s play outdoors, or even aiding the development of a pilot study of children playing with blocks. For more information, contact Dr. Deb Norris at djnorris@k-state.edu.

→ Are you interested in working with children or helping military families? Contact Kali Orrick, Instructional Program Specialist, at kali.j.orrick.naf@mail.mil to learn more about volunteering with Child & Youth Services at Fort Riley!

→ If you’d like to help young children from low-income families, contact Andrew Hutchinson, the program director for the Manhattan-Ogden Early Head Start program at andyh@usd383.org to volunteer.

Job Opportunities:

→ NACADA, the professional association for academic advisors, is hiring a student office assistant starting Spring 2020 for 15-20 hours per week, at $9 per hour. If you’re a freshman or sophomore looking for steady hours in an office setting that will keep you on all year long, apply now on Handshake by December 20th.

→ The Computer Science Department is looking for another Office Assistant! Duties will include answering phones, assisting students and faculty, filing, campus errands, and other tasks as needed. If you are self-motivated and professional, applications are due through Handshake by December 20th.

→ Three Rivers is searching for a student interested in helping professions to provide support for young adults with disabilities in the community. This is a part-time position with afternoon hours, and they’ll provide all the training! Position begins ASAP. Contact Denise at 785-341-8035 for more information.

→ K-State’s Global Campus is looking for a part-time student office assistant! They need help with everything from filing to exam proctoring to support their services for distance students. Apply on Handshake by December 20th!

→ If you like working with youths and want to help prepare them for success in their futures, Boys & Girls Club of Manhattan is looking for part-time program leaders! Apply on Handshake!

Jobs for Graduating Seniors:

→ Premier Employment Solutions is recruiting current students or recent grads with an HDFS-related education for an organization that works with mentally/intellectually-challenged individuals. Contact familyscience@k-state.edu for more information.
