Advising Notices:

→ Attention, students! If you are planning on dropping a course or considering it for Fall 19, the last day to drop a regular-semester course for a full refund is Monday, September 16th! If you need help finding an alternative option, Monday may be too late, so schedule an appointment with your advisor now!

Nonprofit Shadow Day!

Are you unsure about what you want to do with your degree? Are you looking for a chance to shadow a professional and see what your future could hold? Nonprofit Connect’s annual Shadow Day is now open for registration!

→ Register by September 20th for Shadow Day, which will be on October 18th in Kansas City.

→ After a networking breakfast and young professionals panel, you can spend the day following one of over 125 nonprofit professionals who’ve agreed to host a student. There are representatives from organizations of all different types, including: the Child Abuse Prevention Association, Shepherd’s Center of Kansas City Central, Planned Parenthood Great Plains, Tri-County Mental Health Services, and so many more!
FSHS Student Ambassadors:

→ Our school is initiating a new student ambassador program this year, and we’re looking for HDFS students to help represent us! Applicants must:

→ Be enrolled full-time (12 credit hours/semester)
→ Have a 3.0+ GPA
→ Be able to commit to a full academic year
→ Submit their application to Dr. Mindy Markham at mmarkham@k-state.edu or drop it off in Justin 304 by September 13th!

Switching Your Schedule:

→ Need to change your schedule and not sure where to find a replacement class? Check out our online and evening second 8 week options, starting mid-October!

→ CNRES 300 ZB (17826) Intro to Conflict Resolution—online

Participation Encouraged!

→ Curious about studying abroad? Our college will be hosting the HHS Education Abroad Fair on Wednesday, September 11th, from 11 AM to 1 PM in Hoffman Lounge (here in Justin Hall). It’s your chance to ask about a variety of relevant programs, available scholarships, and financial aid for studying abroad!

→ Plan ahead for September events at the Career Center!

→ September 23rd: Late Night Resumé Madness—Don’t miss your last chance to have your resumé reviewed before the All University Career Fair!

→ 7 to 10 PM in the Berney Family Welcome Center

→ September 24-26th: All University Career Fair—Connect with over 300 employers for career and internship positions! (Opportunities for FSHS students will be primarily on September 24th and 25th)

→ 11 AM to 4 PM in Bramlage Coliseum each day

→ September 24th: For students in Agriculture, Arts & Sciences, Business, and Health & Human Sciences
→ September 25th: All majors
→ September 26th: For students in Engineering and Technology
Don’t forget to check out some of KSU’s amazing resources on campus. This week: International Student and Scholar Services

→ ISSS doesn’t just help international students and scholars at K-State. They provide amazing opportunities for our students, faculty, staff, and community members to explore other cultures and partake in international festivities!

→ Are you interested in learning about other cultures? International Coffee Hour is back! Friday, September 13th, come learn about Honduras at the International Student Center from 4-5 PM. Enjoy some coffee while hearing about Honduran culture, making new friends, and sampling traditional cuisine!

→ Try a new language without the pressure of grades! International Student and Scholar Services works with their students to offer Basic Language Training (BLT). These are 8-week, non-credit language courses every semester. The courses are all scheduled in the evenings and are one hour, twice a week.

→ This fall, classes go from September 16th to November 8th. Languages offered include:

→ Arabic, Cantonese, Czech, Hindi, Portuguese, Spanish, Advanced Spanish, Serbian, and Turkish

Job Opportunities:

→ A family is searching for a part-time assistant for their daughter, who is diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy and wheelchair-bound. The assistant will be helping her with community and video-making activities. They will be accepting applications until September 30th. Details are available upon request. For more information, contact littlehorserider@yahoo.com.

→ Heartland At Home Care is hiring part-time caregivers for the Manhattan-Wamego area. If you are interested in supporting the elderly in living independently in their own homes, they offer competitive wages and a school-friendly schedule.

→ Boys & Girls Club of Manhattan is searching for a part-time program leader to plan, implement, supervise, and promote activities and programs after school for children and youths. Applications should be emailed to hrmgr@bgclubmanhattan.com by 6:00 PM on September 16th.

→ Big Lakes Developmental Center is hiring part-time residential advisors to help support adults with intellectual/developmental disabilities. They have a wide variety of hours available, depending on the needs of their individuals.
Start School with Safety:

→ Sign up for K-State Alerts to receive emergency notifications for your campus!

→ Get the free LiveSafe app for your phone—you can report tips, speed dial important resources from the KSU Police to the CARE office, access a map of the emergency phones around campus, and even use peer-to-peer location tracking so you and your friends can monitor each other getting around safely.

→ You don’t have to walk alone! Wildcat Walk will send an escort to meet you and walk you across campus. Save them in your phone!

→ Wildcat Walk: 785-395-7233

→ Catch a SafeRide! Shuttles run 11 PM till 3 AM on Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays every weekend.

→ Questions? Call 785-537-6345

Volunteering & Internship Opportunities:

→ Help Sunflower CASA in their efforts to advocate for the best interests of children and youth in the Kansas court systems! If you’d like to help give a child a voice, they’re always looking for volunteers.

→ If you want to get hands-on and are willing to commit, you can sign up for their fall training to become a Court Appointed Special Advocate, to be paired directly with a CASA child and protect them from falling through the cracks of the court system.

→ If you want to help, but need more flexibility, they need volunteers to help with events, fundraise, provide office support, and recruit more volunteers.

→ If you want to join others who love serving their community through volunteer work, check out K-State’s HandsOn Program! They’ll discuss your interests and help you find organization contacts so that you can get hands-on with work that means something to you.

→ Check out the Flint Hills Volunteer Center for a large variety of volunteer opportunities, from single events to ongoing opportunities. Connect with organizations such as the Riley County Senior Center or Thrive Manhattan, or support national groups such as the Salvation Army or Habitat for Humanity through their local chapters.
