UNIVERSITY SAFETY
Kansas State University is committed to providing a safe teaching and learning environment for student and faculty members. In order to enhance your safety in the unlikely case of a campus emergency make sure that you know where and how to quickly exit your classroom and how to follow any emergency directives. To view additional campus emergency information go to the University’s main page, www.kstate.edu, and click on the Emergency Information button.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
Any student with a disability who needs a classroom accommodation, access to technology or other academic assistance in this course should contact Disability Support Services (dss@k-state.edu) and/or the instructor. DSS serves students with a wide range of disabilities including, but not limited to, physical disabilities, sensory impairments, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorder, depression, and anxiety.

UNDERGRADUATE HONOR SYSTEM
Kansas State University has an Honor System based on personal integrity, which is presumed to be sufficient assurance that, in academic matters, one’s work is performed honestly and without unauthorized assistance. Undergraduate and graduate students, by registration, acknowledge the jurisdiction of the Honor System. The policies and procedures of the Honor System apply to all full and part-time students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate courses on-campus, off-campus, and via distance learning. The honor system website can be reached via the following URL: www.ksu.edu/honor.

A component vital to the Honor System is the inclusion of the Honor Pledge which applies to all assignments, examinations, or other course work undertaken by students. The Honor Pledge is implied, whether or not it is stated: ‘On my honor, as a student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this academic work.’ A grade of XF can result from a breach of academic honesty. The F indicates failure in the course; the X indicates the reason is an Honor Pledge violation.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES
1. The student will work for a hospitality business related to their track of interest for a minimum of 300 hours. A focused summer internship is recommended. This will allow the student to submerge themselves into the environment on a full-time basis and fully understand how the operation functions. However, this experience could be completed during the normal academic year.

2. Students are expected to put forth their best effort in their chosen position.

3. At the completion of the work experience, the student should submit the attached Work Experience Verification Form to their academic advisor.

4. Upon return to campus, all students who have completed the HMD 375 experience will be required to present a tabletop poster session using a tri-fold poster board (36 x 48). The posters must be professional in nature and must include, but are not limited to, information about the following:
   - Name of company or organization
   - Location
   - Position and responsibilities
   - Operational data: size, volume, amount of staff, organizational structure, market share, and unique features of the business
   - What you learned about yourself, the job, and this area of hospitality
   - How will this experience help you attain your career goals?
   - How did you utilize your strengths throughout the experience?

5. Students will present their findings to other HM students during a department sponsored poster session upon returning to campus. Please visit with your advisor to determine the date of the presentations.
CRITERIA FOR AN INTERNSHIP SITE SELECTION & COURSE ENROLLMENT
Internships are to be completed in a foodservice setting and must be approved by the students’ advisor prior to commencing work within the operation. The attached form should be completed by the student and submitted to the advisor before the advisor will grant the student permission to enroll in the course.

GRADES
Credit/No-Credit. Students will receive an incomplete until all assignments are completed.
