Give to IDFS

Our department relies on charitable contributions to support many initiatives including, but not limited to, the following:

1. academic scholarships for students,
2. enriched learning opportunities for students at both the undergraduate and graduate levels,
3. support for faculty to enhance their teaching and scholarly accomplishments, and
4. engagement with scholars and the public as we continue to operate our Historic Costume and Textile Museum as a repository for over 15,000 historical artifacts.
