

Jennifer Miller, DrPH, MA, CPH

Phone: 785-317-7317

jmill212@ksu.edu

Education:

Doctor of Public Health Practice (DrPH)

University of North Texas Health Science Center 2017
Residency: A Review and Critique of the Health Cities Initiative in the High Desert Region of Southern California

M.A., Sociology

Kansas State University 2010
Concentrations: Criminology, Social Inequality
Thesis: The Influence of Attitude: A Sociological Investigation of Reintegrative Shaming Theory

B.S, Sociology, Minor in Psychology

Oklahoma State University 2007

Teaching Experience:

Instructor

Kansas State University 2020 – 2021
Healthful and Safe College Life

Teaching Assistant

University of North Texas Health Science Center 2013 – 2016

Instructor

Kansas State University 2011 – 2012

Teaching Assistant

Kansas State University 2008 – 2010

Research Skills:

- Knowledge of SPSS, STATA, and SAS Statistical Programs
- Experience with Community-Based Participatory Research, Evaluations, and Secondary Data Analysis

Presentations:

- Miller, J. (2019). Infant Mortality and Adverse Childhood Events. Presentation at the Governor’s Conference on the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect.
- Clifford, D., Nguyen, M. & Miller, J. (2018). Program Evaluation for the Maternal & Child Health Agenda. Sunflower Spotlight Panel Discussion at the Kansas Public Health Association Conference.
- Miller, J., Beyer, M., Barnes, S., Adeniyi, Q., Ko, P., Chinyanta, N., Lee, P., & Paul, M. L. (2015). “Nurturing the Workplace: A PAR Approach to Assessing Texas Mother-Friendly Worksites.” Poster presented at the CityMatCH National Conference.

- Miller, J., Chhetri, S., Reyes, I., Rahman, A. Watt, I., Cantu, K. & Paul, M. (2015). “Sleeping Safely: Perceptions and Practices of Parents and Caregivers.” Poster presented at Research Appreciation Day, University of North Texas Health Science Center.
- Eley, L., Paul, M., & Miller, J. (2014). “365 Days of Infant Mortality: Using Photo Voice to understand Infant Mortality as an Issue for Social Change.” Poster presented at the American Public Health Association Conference.

Grants:

Current Research

National Violent Death Reporting System Restricted Access Data New Investigator Award
 American Public Health Association and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention $5,000
 August 1, 2020 - January 31, 2021
 Maternal Mortality: Understanding the Impact of Pregnancy-Associated Homicide

Professional Experience:

Director, Bachelor of Science in Public Health Department of Kinesiology College of Health and Human Sciences Kansas State University	2021-Present
Healthcare Analyst (Remote) Ripple Effect Communications	2018 – Present
Director of Health Promotion Kansas State University	2019 – 2021
Health Planning Consultant Maternal & Perinatal Initiatives Kansas Department of Health and Environment	2019 – 2019
Fetal Infant Mortality Review Coordinator Sedgwick County Health Department	2018 – 2019
Institutional Review Board Coordinator Arrowhead Regional Medical Center/ San Bernardino County	2017 – 2017
Externship Coordinator University of Texas at Arlington-Health Careers Institute	2014 – 2016

Professional Affiliations:

- American Public Health Association-Governing Councilor, Sexual and Reproductive Health Section; Sexuality Taskforce Co-Chair, Sexual and Reproductive Health Section
- Flint Hills Wellness Coalition- Board Member
- Central College Health Association- Member-at-Large Representative for Kansas
- American College Health Association

- Society for the Study of Social Problems
- Kansas Public Health Association
- Riley County Public Health Advisory Council
- Journal of American College Health—Reviewer